Prayer Garden Dedication

October 21, 2007

Responsive Reading

Dr. Spence:

For the mystery of the Trinity, a base of three;
For the Source of life and unending love, the circle;
For the unity of all earthly and eternal, the braid;
For the Gift of Christ, the cross;
For the Glory of God, the garden.

Congregation:

In this garden, we will find rest and renewal.
We will know the joy of companions.
We will feel the power of love.
We will see blooming faces of angels.
We will be still, and we will know God.

Amen.

In the Garden

I come to the garden alone,
White the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear, falling on my ear,
The Son of God discloses.

And He walks with me,
And He talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known.
